

Wouldn't it be great if kids came with instructions?

Raising children is not easy. At times, it can be downright frustrating. But it's also the most important thing you'll ever do! That's why Home of the Innocents offers P.A.S.S. (Parents Acquiring Skills & Strength), a FREE parenting class to help you raise healthy, happy children. Classes are open to everyone.

In this class you'll learn to create a home where:

- family members communicate better
- everyone finds ways to solve problems without yelling or hitting
- you and your children will be more aware of your strengths and weaknesses
- the whole family learns to have fun together

Plan to attend this class if you:

- want to learn new parenting skills
- have had any contact with Child Protective Services
- are having trouble within your home and are at risk of having your children removed

P.A.S.S. Classes are Wednesday nights for parents with infants, toddlers or preschoolers, and Monday nights for parents with school-aged children.
